Re: Letter of Support

During Advisory Neighborhood Commission 5E's May 2015 Public Meeting the Commission voted to support the Edgewood Civic Association's 62nd Edgewood Civic Association Community Day and Festival. The purpose of this event is to help celebrate the civic association's work on behalf of the Edgewood community. This celebration will include health information, food and games for residents of all ages.

The Edgewood Civic Association was formed in 1953. Its original mission is to build community spirit and unity among all people, including African-Americans who had been denied the right to join the existing community associations. Its over-arching mission is to continue to "serve, advocate and educate" the residents in the Edgewood and Eckington communities.

The Commission respectfully requests that the Department of Park and Recreation permit the Edgewood Civic Association to use the Edgewood Recreation Center located at 1743 Lincoln Road, NE, Washington, DC to host the 62nd Edgewood Civic Association Community Day and Festival on Saturday, June 20, 2015.

Best,

Teri Janine Quinn
Chair
